

PROGRESS, REACTION?

He's For Peace, Progress, Prosperity

GOVERNOR JAMES M. COX

PEACE OR WAR? YOU'LL DECIDE

AMERICA today stands at the parting of the ways. Tomorrow the voters of this great nation will decide whether we are to enjoy four years of peace, progress and prosperity, or whether it will be four years of reaction, "normalcy", isolation from the rest of the world and preparation for war at a pace never before heard of.

The choice is with the men and women of this, the nation to which the entire world is looking for leadership. The issues have been well defined. One man stands for the great principles of humanity enunciated at Versailles in the articles creating a world brotherhood of man, the League of Nations. The other stands with his back to this brotherhood and for the war-makers.

The League of Nations is a league for peace. That is why the great munitions makers of the country are aligned against it. That is why the mothers of the country should be lined up solidly for it.

When you enter the voting places tomorrow you will be passing judgment on the greatest issue that ever faced this or any other country. For that reason you should stop to consider. You, as loyal Americans, are called upon to decide the course your nation will take in the years to come. You want that course to be for the best; to uphold the traditions for which our forefathers fought and which we have enjoyed since the birth of the Republic.

James M. Cox has told you that he will, if elected, go into the League of Nations. Warren G. Harding has told you that he will, if elected, turn his back on it; scrap it. The world's greatest students of international law have told you that the United States will surrender none of its sovereignty; will be beholden to no nation more than now if we enter the league. They have told you that staying out means the United States armed and prepared to fight the whole world. You know what that means in dollars and in men.

Cox is a progressive in every sense of the word. Harding is a reactionary of the old school. Do you want to fix your goal in the future of greater things, or do you want to turn your face to the past without a constructive program? Cox looks ahead to the New Day; Harding rocks in an easy chair and dreams of the "good old days".

The issues in this election are not partisan issues. They are world issues of the greatest importance. A false step may mean the loss of millions of lives of our finest young men and the expense of billions of dollars of our money.

A vote for Cox means a vote for peace with honor and security of our nation, with the maintenance of the high standing it has established among the nations of the world.

A vote for Harding is a vote for more war preparations, national isolation, cowardice and stagnation.

He's For Reaction, Normalcy, Isolation

SENATOR WARREN G. HARDING

"JAIL FOREVER FOR WARFARE"

Militarism Imprisoned If Cox Is Elected and Militarism Is Free to Murder Again If Harding Wins, Declares Chairman White

NEW YORK.—(By Associated Press)—Victory for the Democratic presidential candidate will mean that "militarism goes to jail forever" and Republican success will mean that "militarism is free to murder and pillage again," George White, chairman of the Democratic national committee, declared Monday in a final campaign statement. He asserted that the Democrats "have fought an absolutely clean fight."

Mr. White's statement follows: "There is one great decision before the American voters tomorrow; shall this nation join the league with safeguarding reservations and thus assure world peace, or shall this nation reject the league and let militarism continue to run at large?"

"If sufficient American voters mark their ballots for James M. Cox, militarism goes to jail forever. If sufficient voters mark their ballots for Warren G. Harding, militarism is free to murder and pillage again."

"The peace of the world and the prosperity and progress of the United States depend upon the votes of Americans tomorrow. The issue has been clearly made. Senator Harding no longer denies that he will not resubmit the treaty and covenant to the senate and return to his program of a separate peace with Germany, at whose hands 81,000 American soldiers are dead abroad. The only way to obtain the league and peace is thru a vote for Cox. This proposition is no longer even disputed."

"We have fought an absolutely clean fight. We have contended with honor against tactics ranging from deceitful strategy and misrepresentation to sacrilege. Thruout we have held aloft, unstained, the banner of the league of nations. The American people will carry it over the top tomorrow to certain victory."

M'SWINEY BURIED

CORK.—(By United Press)—Terence MacSwiney's career was at an end Monday. His remains lay in state at the city hall, the grave covered by masses of flowers. The burial of the former lord mayor of Cork, after all the threats and fears that have been spread, took place quietly Sunday—only a few thousands of spectators showed.

The services differed from the ordinary burial. Monday the crowds had melted away. The military still kept sharp watch against surprise attacks but much of the tension was relaxed. The spirit of all Sunday was so plainly for the avoidance of disturbances that officials were greatly relieved. Soldiers and police were in evidence at the funeral services. Their military equipment peeped from armored cars and from their own uniforms. Soldiers waved their hats to the crowds, watching always for any suspicious act. None was discovered.

COX TO DELIVER 'LUCKY' SPEECH

DAYTON.—(By Associated Press)—Governor James M. Cox will deliver a "lucky" speech Monday night at the Dayton Civic Center. The speech is expected to be a final statement of his campaign platform. Cox is expected to arrive in Dayton at 7 o'clock and to leave at 11 o'clock. The speech will be broadcast over the radio.

YOUNG MAN KILLED WHILE ON HIS WAY TO ARRANGE FUNERAL FOR BROTHER

CLEVELAND.—Earl Willett, 21, was killed late Sunday in a motor-car accident while on his way to the home of a relative to discuss funeral arrangements for his brother. Willett, who was killed by a car driven by a woman, was on his way to the home of a relative to discuss funeral arrangements for his brother. Willett was killed by a car driven by a woman.

CHARGE THEFT OF FIRM'S MONEY

A $100 robbery was told in Lima Monday morning by the work of the Lima police department. Two hours after police were notified that George Lloyd, a porter at Gordon's Lumber and Millinery store, was missing. Lloyd was arrested on Monday morning and charged with the theft of $100 from the store. Lloyd was arrested on Monday morning and charged with the theft of $100 from the store.

CUBA VOTES FOR NEW PRESIDENT

HAVANA, Cuba.—(By Associated Press)—Cuba voted Monday for a new president and the outcome was awaited with considerable apprehension. The end of the campaign, regarded as the most bitter since the island gained the right to govern its own affairs, found old party lines broken with a right-about-turn in leadership. Platform issues apparently were forgotten in the race for control of the government by Jose Miguel Gomez, Liberal nominee, and Dr. Alfredo Zayas, candidate of the old constructive coalition party. Gomez is former president of Cuba and Zayas served as vice president.

Charles Gordon, proprietor of the store, appeared at police headquarters at 9:30 and swore out an affidavit against Floyd, declaring he had then been gone more than an hour. Chief Roush immediately got busy and notified all the railroad and interurban lines to be on the lookout, and then a last resort called upon the taxi companies of the city. All surrounding cities and towns were also notified. From the City Taxi Co., the chief declared he got the clue which led to the arrest. They reported that a man had telephoned from N. Colest asking for a taxi to report himself late to take him to Lakeview. Thinking this was probably the man, Chief Roush left in pursuit in the police patrol and overtook the taxi a mile west of Waynefield and made the arrest. It was then 11:50 a. m. he said.

When arrested Floyd had the cash amounting to $514.75 in a black leather wallet in an inside breast pocket, the chief said, and had separated the checks and deposit slip and was carrying them in his hand. The deposit slip showed that he had cash amounting to $515, and sufficient checks to bring the total up to $500.25.

Gordon said in addition to the money given Floyd for deposit he had given him $5 to get quarters and dime for change. Floyd had been an employee of the store for the past four months. Gordon told police and this was the first sign he had shown of dishonesty. The man gave his home as Columbus. Chief Roush said Floyd will be given a hearing Monday afternoon.

WOMAN'S VOTE PUZZLES CHIEFS

May Turn Tables In all Expectations, Party Leaders Admit—Both Chairmen White and Hays Claim Victory on Eve of Election

NEW YORK.—(By Associated Press)—With the opening of the polls less than 25 hours away, both Republican and Democratic party leaders early Monday took up the stride which will carry them into the final scope of the presidential contest Tuesday, either to victory or defeat. Both major parties began their day of campaigning by declaring confidence in the election of their candidates. "Cox and Roosevelt will win," declared George White, Democratic national chairman. "Will Hays, leader of the Republican forces, translated his exhortations into figures, expressing the conviction that Harding will have no less than 505, probably 560, electoral votes out of the possible 531. The number required to elect is 266.

Interest in the last day of the great fight centers in the final desperate attempt to bring over a doubtful state with later electoral votes to deliver or to deny. Eight States senators in other doubtful states where the electoral vote is not large enough to be indispensable. The salient example of states in the first category is Ohio, home state of the two principal candidates, with 24 votes, while the outstanding case of the second class is Nevada with only three. Other states where the election hour contest is intense with both the swings of success are Arizona, Kentucky, Maryland, New Mexico, Tennessee, North Carolina and the Indiana. All these are where the Buckeye state is claiming to be both Republican and Democratic.

Second only in interest to the election of the women is the subject of both major parties in the possession of advance information on what is expected of the new classes of voters, especially their franchise in all the states for the first time. Speculation is being well informed political circles. As to the proportion of women who will vote Tuesday in comparison with the male vote, election, distribution of the women's vote and the possibility of its being as a whole independent enough to overturn the habits of election probabilities compiled over a period of years in which certain states have been "normally" inclined to one political faith or the other. MANY NO CRITERION. Most of the voters declare that the recent Maine election where the women's vote was well under half that of the men can be considered no criterion for prediction of national election results. Women in state where universal suffrage has obtained for some years are expected to out in their enthusiasm sisters. And on the other hand the experts admit this hypothesis may be wrong. The Socialist party had made claim for the largest proportion of women's votes. With the new voters properly belonging to the party added to non-socialists who they expect all vote the ticket in protest against the nomination of the party's presidential nominee, Eugene V. Debs, the Socialists predicted a vote of at least 3,000,000. In 1916 the Socialist vote was less than 600,000. If the six national parties start out to break electoral college records Tuesday they must aim at those set up in the election of tickets headed by President Wilson. In 1912 his majority of 69 was the greatest in the record of American elections while that of 1916—27 votes—as the smallest.

POLICE FOUGHT BY WHOLE FAMILY

CLEVELAND.—(By United Press)—William Taylor, 19, is in a hospital with seven bullet wounds, and his father, mother and young sister are in jail as a result of a battle with two police detectives at the boy's home last night. The officers sought to arrest Taylor last Saturday in a fight, where he is charged with their. They were attacked by the entire family, the boy holding an axe which was handed to him by his brother Moses, 19. The battle ended in total darkness after the light had been extinguished. In addition to Taylor those arrested are Thomas Taylor, 46; Mrs. Catherine Taylor, 40, and Dolly Taylor, 14.

BEST ELECTION RETURNS IN, THE CITY TUESDAY NIGHT

The Lima News has made elaborate preparations for furnishing up-to-the-minute election returns Tuesday night. One of our special press wires will be given over to this service, the results being shown on a screen in the Holland building near The News office as fast as received. Arrangements have been made with the police to keep automobiles from this square in order that the public may have full advantage of this service. Special editions will be put on the street as soon as results on which a reliable forecast can be based are received. The public is invited to take advantage of this service. In addition, those not desiring to come down-town may call The News for information which will be furnished as concise and up-to-the-minute as it is possible for a trained force to supply it. The News' number is Main 4921.

VOTERS WORKED TO HIGH PITCH

Ohio Turns to Speculative Trying to Pick Winners

GREATEST OF FIGHTS ENDS

Women's Vote Brings Mystery to the Middle West

COLUMBUS — (By Associated Press) — Ohio voters Monday were turning to the speculative and trying to pick out winners in Tuesday's elections, which one of two parties at the Buckeye state—Senator Harding, Harding of Marion, or Governor James M. Cox of Dayton—will be elected president. Political speeches were few, the only one of importance being that of Governor Cox at Toledo Monday night, Senator Harding being scheduled to remain in Marion.

During the campaign, which practically closed Saturday, Ohioans have received a literal avalanche of political argument. With Senator Harding conducting many "front porch" meetings at Marion, and Governor Cox delivering 36 speeches on his stump tour of the state, there has been no lack of stimulus, and never before has there been so much interest and stir over politics. On the streets, in offices, at home and any place where people meet, the election is almost the sole topic of conversation.

STATE CANDIDATES
Among candidates for state offices, the only one who will speak Monday night is W. A. Julian of Cincinnati, Democratic candidate for United States senator, who delivers an address at Canton. Most of the others have gone to their homes to vote and do not expect to return to the capital until after the election.

MIDDLE WEST SITUATION
CHICAGO — (By Associated Press) — Claims and counter claims, with flashes of old time political enthusiasm, marked the conclusion of the campaign in the states of the Central West Monday.

Mystery as to the tide of the tremendous woman vote was reflected in many eleven hour discussions of the general situation. It was stated on all sides that the woman vote, together with expected labor solidarity in numerous districts, very likely would delay returns and create uncertainty where contests were close.

"SOLID SOUTH"
ATLANTA — (By Associated Press) — Conflicts in a half dozen scattered congressional districts, where the outcome is said to be in doubt, continued Monday to stir late interests among southern voters in Tuesday's election.

While Democratic leaders in various states expressed confidence that

WAR HERO'S BODY ARRIVES

Nephew of Congressman Welty Who Was Killed in France

Congressman B. F. Welty received a telegram Monday, stating that the body of the late Lieutenant Wilbur Welty had arrived in New York, from overseas. Lieutenant Welty was a nephew of Congressman Welty and was one of the first to volunteer in the aviation corps at the outbreak of the war.

He was killed November 19, 1918, the day before the armistice was signed, when his machine was disabled and crashed to the ground back of the lines. The body will be laid to rest in the cemetery at Apple Creek, Ohio, the home of Lieutenant Welty's father.

Congressman Welty has ten nephews in the war and five saw service in France. One of them, Clayton E. Welty, was severely wounded while fighting with the Marines when the Americans turned the tide of battle at Belleau Wood in June of 1918.

GAS EXPERT TO REPORT TO LIMA CITY COUNCIL
Investigation of the Lima Natgas Co. had not crystallized into anything definite regarding rate late Monday afternoon.

After working on the books of the company all day Sunday and Monday forenoon, E. R. Brownell, the expert making the investigation called an executive session of the committee appointed to make the investigation at the council chamber on W. High-st. At this meeting, according to Secretary Irving F. Lincoln of the Chamber of Commerce, Brownell expects to tell the committee what his findings so far have been and declare a policy to pursue in regard to fixing rates.

CHARGE OF STEALING COAL IS DISMISSED

Trial of Henry J. Allen, 615 S. Main-st., charged with theft of coal from the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, was dismissed in Justice Butkins court Monday.

When the witness appeared, he refused to say Allen was the man who had taken the coal. Justice Butkins therefore dismissed the case. The warrant for the arrest of Allen was sworn to by Charles Brown, Baltimore and Ohio railroad detective.

BROTHER OF LIMA WOMAN DIES IN N. Y.

William H. Kirk, 52, brother of Mrs. Pearl Jacobs, Lima, died Saturday in New York, according to information received here Monday. Death followed a brief illness at the home of his brother, John Kirk, 75 W. Main-st., Cortland, N. Y.

Besides the sister here, he is survived by a widow, two other sisters and two brothers.

SUIT IS POSTPONED

Due to absence from the city of Attorney T. R. Hamilton, legal counsel for Mrs. Helen Shope, the contested divorce case of Andrew Shope against Helen Shope, set for trial Monday, was postponed.

WAR HERO'S BODY ARRIVES

Congressman Welty has ten nephews in the war and five saw service in France. One of them, Clayton E. Welty, was severely wounded while fighting with the Marines when the Americans turned the tide of battle at Belleau Wood in June of 1918. "Lieutenant Welty," said Congressman Welty Monday, "was superintendent of the Youngstown steel mills and while on his vacation his company procured his exemption from the draft because he was needed in the mills. He was the only one who asked me to help him in having the order of the draft board reversed, so that he could have the bills and go to the front. He said he would never again be happy if he knew that someone had given his life for him. Death to him meant more abundant life."

ALL SAINTS' DAY IS OBSERVED IN CHURCHES

Masses in celebration of All Saints' day were held Monday in St. Rose, St. John's and St. Gerard's Catholic churches.

At Christ church, Episcopal, the day was celebrated by the observance of the holy communion and a meditation of the lives and deeds of those who formerly composed Christ church, who have passed beyond.

All Souls' day, which falls on Tuesday, will be the occasion for special masses in Lima Catholic churches.

FIVE NEW PATIENTS AT STATE HOSPITAL

Population of the Lima State hospital was increased by five Sunday, when that number of inmates were sent from the Ohio penitentiary to the hospital.

The men who had been serving time there on desperate charges, were declared to be insane and referred to the hospital here for treatment.

NEW BOY ARRIVES

Mr. and Mrs. William Dole, 442 W. Hall-st., announce the birth of a son at St. Rita's hospital, Monday morning.

COLUMBUS GROUP — Mrs. Fred Busche, 30, suffered a slight stroke of paralysis and is in a serious condition at her home.

LIMA DISTRICT NEWS IN BRIEF

ST. MARYS — His bond fixed at $300 and bound over to common pleas court, is the present status of Roma McCabe's latest court proceeding charging the exhibition of moving pictures on Sunday. McCabe waived examination in a preliminary hearing in Justice W. H. Swift's court. Three previous charges against McCabe resulted respectively in his indictment by the October grand jury (his case not yet coming for trial), a fine of one dollar, and costs and a fine of $25 and costs in Mayor G. M. Raudabaugh's court.

ST. MARYS — George W. Mannix, Darke-co common pleas judge, spoke to a great audience at the grand opera house at the climax of the democratic campaign in Auglaize-co.

DAY NURSERY MEETING — A regular meeting of the Board of the Day Nursery will be held at the Nursery home Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. Every member of the board is urged to attend.

WARDEN GETS HIS WIRES CROSSED

Judicial Candidates Appeal for Aid of League Enemies

E. N. Warden, of Napoleon, Henry-co, has his wires crossed in the matter of soliciting support as the Republican nominee for Judge of the Court of Appeals of this district, against H. L. Conn, of Van Wert, the Democratic nominee.

Mr. Warden is sending out letters printed in German, to every voter in the district who bears what appears to be a German name. In his letter he says he is "opposed to the League of Nations and the other objectionable policies of President Wilson and Governor Cox. I ask the support of all voters of this district who are opposed to the League of Nations."

In the first place, in his position as Judge, should he be elected, Mr. Warden would have nothing more to do with the adoption or rejection of the League of Nations by the United States than any private citizen.

It is true that his opponent, H. L. Conn, one of the most able attorneys in Ohio, favors the League of Nations and will vote for it by supporting Governor Cox.

BOGART'S FLIVVER STOLEN WHILE HE WAS IN CHURCH

While attending services at the First Presbyterian church, Columbus Grove, Sunday, John Bogart, former deputy sheriff of Allen-co, lost his Ford automobile, driven away from in front of the church.

For the first time in his life he had left the key remaining in the car when he went into the edifice to attend services. A bag of laundry, which he was bringing to leave to be washed this week, and auto robes and tools were included in the theft.

Up to Monday afternoon no trace of the car was found. "Bogart resides on a farm north of Columbus Grove."

LODGE NOTICES

The Ladies of the G. A. R. will meet Monday evening at Memorial Hall. All members are urged to attend. Inspectors will be present.

Allen Review No. 137 will hold its thirtieth anniversary and Homecoming at Central Hall, Thursday evening. A splendid program is planned and supper will be served at 9:30 o'clock.

SHIP FAST IN BRIDGE. TRAINS HELD AT TOLEDO

TOLEDO — New York Central train was held up here Sunday night and early Monday the ore freighter William Wolf, carrying 10,000 tons of ore, became fast while passing thru the Lake Shore draw-bridge. Trains had to be rerouted over the Toledo terminal railway. At 8 a. m., the Wolf was still fast, tugs having worked all night to free her.

BANK ROBBED

DANA, Ind. — A lone bandit held up the First National Bank of Dana early Monday and escaped in an automobile with $2,000 in cash.

THE QUESTION IS E. V. DEBS ISSUES STATEMENT

The question as to whether we are to have a Commission Manager Government is already decided—you decided that we were to have a Commission Manager Government by your votes in November 1919. This new Lima Charter, which you asked to have prepared for you—which the 15 commissioners you selected last Fall—is now ready for your vote acceptance. This Charter was carefully prepared (these men worked nine months without pay) and these men are from every walk in life, and from every section of the city. This new Lima Charter has the enthusiastic endorsement of the biggest experts in the U. S.

All there is necessary for you to do, is to now APPROVE the work of these 16 faithful men, and by your vote adopt the Charter.

Vote "YES" on the Charter, on the small, separate ballot. (Adv.)

WELL FITTED FOR THE DUTIES OF CLERK SAY FRIENDS OF WALLACE

Glenn I. Wallace, former city clerk and widely known republican, will be well fitted for his duties in event of his election, say his friends; and the same friends strongly predict that election.

Wallace is a life-long Lima resident and republican and has made a clean cut man to man campaign.

A Platform for All

Whatever ticket you vote for, Tuesday, you will find opponents on the "other side." There is one exception—that is the little separate ballot, marked CHARTER. Like old-time religion, this is one proposition on which all honest, square-deal citizens, of whatever party, can unite.

In this and every other political battle the Republican and Democratic parties fight for the insignificant minority against the people.

In this and every other political battle the Socialist Party fights against the insignificant minority and for the people.

The struggle today, as in ages past is between the producers and parasites. The awakening workers are rising from their knees, standing erect in the consciousness of their power, halting one another across boundary lines in every tongue of the race and the whole world is aflame with social revolution.

E. V. DEBS ISSUES STATEMENT

The following statement was issued by Eugene V. Debs, Socialist candidate for president, especially for The Lima News Debs is seen in the United States Penitentiary at Atlanta serving a sentence for his utterances in wartime. He calls this statement his last word in the campaign.

BY EUGENE V. DEBS
This will be my last word in the presidential campaign. It is enough for me to have been one of the standard bearers of the working class, I regret only not having been able to meet the workers face to face as in other days.

If the earth and all it contains is not for the people, not a handful of them, but all the people, then there is certainly a mighty mistake somewhere that needs the Almighty's correction.

A very small, insignificant minority of the people practically own and absolutely rule the United States of America.

That insignificant minority has its seat of government in Wall Street.

It is also there that the candidates are chosen and the platform written for the two dominant parties, thru which this insignificant minority secures control of the government and rules the people.

Every man and every woman who votes the Republican or Democratic ticket on Tuesday next registers his approval of Wall Street and opposition to the people.

The League of Nations is the biggest fraud and humbug of all. Its sole purpose is to link up the insignificant ruling and fobbing minorities of several nations, and in trench international capitalism more securely for the perpetual minority rule of the people and exploitation of the world.

The issue is revolution or reaction.

The people all over the world are in revolt against capitalism and slavery.

Are you for or against them in their world-wide struggle to break their chains?

The tocsin of war sounds the death knell of capitalism and the despotic rule of the insignificant minority, and the liberation of the people.

In this and every other political battle the Republican and Democratic parties fight for the insignificant minority against the people.

In this and every other political battle the Socialist Party fights against the insignificant minority and for the people.

The struggle today, as in ages past is between the producers and parasites. The awakening workers are rising from their knees, standing erect in the consciousness of their power, halting one another across boundary lines in every tongue of the race and the whole world is aflame with social revolution.

The insignificant minority of non-producing parasites shall no longer rule and wreck the world. Their time is up. They must now go, and we Socialists are organized for that very purpose.

The people versus the parasites. That is the issue and the only issue that will confront you on election day.

MONTAGUE GETS A "HOT" ANSWER

Congressman Welty Attacks Statements of Elida Man

In reply to a letter published by Oscar Montague of Elida, attacking Congressman E. F. Welty on features of the campaign, Mr. Welty Monday forwarded to Mr. Montague an answer, denying that as a Congressman he had abused the franking privilege.

"I would say," Mr. Welty's letter states, "that in the matter of the abuse of my franking privilege, that the letter before mailing was submitted to the Post Office Department and I received a letter stating that it was frankable under the law."

Concerning a question as to "why he did not bust the trusts while in the Department of Justice," Mr. Welty points out that "the Federal Judges have not sent a single man to jail under the Sherman anti-trust law since its enactment in 1890, not even under a Republican administration. A fine does not stop them from stealing and only fools the people," Mr. Welty's letter states.

"I do hope that the future Prosecuting Attorney of Allen-co will see to it that the great State of Ohio will again function as a sovereign state by presenting to the grand jury the facts about illegal combinations, for I know that our local courts will break them up by giving some of these who steal millions a few days in jail."

Welty states that Montague is only "acting the part of a parrot for the sugar trust" when he says that "by the consent of the administration the American people were fleeced out of millions."

In a letter published by John L. Cable, his opponent, Welty states that in the matter of the proposed building of a ship canal Cable wants to saddle an act of a Republican legislature on his (Welty's) shoulders.

"That's all there is to it," said Welty, "and that is all the answer necessary."

BUSINESS TO COME BEFORE CITY COUNCIL

Service Director Elmer McClain said Monday he would ask council Monday night to make appropriations to cover increases of 10 percent granted to city employees in September.

Other business to come before the council will include presentation by City Engineer Vaughn C. Miller of plans for the Elm and North-st bridges.

City Auditor David L. Rupert will ask for an estimating board to be appointed for the Faurot-ave paving.

PLEADS NOT GUILTY

SPRINGFIELD. Mrs. Frank B. Snowden, arrested in police court Monday on a charge of shooting Miss Tealima Koller with intent to kill, entered a plea of not guilty. Her hearing was set for November 9 and she was released under a bail of $2500.

Women and Politics

On every measure that you are asked to vote for, Tuesday, you will find you have opponents—ONE. Perhaps the most vital problem we have, is right here at home. The Christian Religion is the one we all agree on. The Commissioner Manager Government is like that in this one respect—it is the one that both Democrats and Republicans, who have best interests of Lima at heart, can conscientiously vote for. City Manager Government lifts city government out of dirty politics, and gives Lima a square deal for the money which we pay. (Adv.)

ELECTIONS

Election day, November 2nd, decides several questions for County, State and Nation and we will now settle down to other business.

There is another election for each man and woman every day; it is the decision to save money or spend every dollar.

Depriving one's self today for the benefit to be gained tomorrow is not easy. It takes courage to look over the good things near by, toward the more permanent ones of the future, but the gain makes it worth while.

The Allen County Savings and Loan Company, in the Savings Building, Corner Market and Elizabeth Streets, pays five per cent interest on deposits and welcomes new accounts every day. Your patronage is solicited.

Open every day from 8:30 a. m. to 4 p. m. Not open Saturday nights.

WOMAN TO STAND TRIAL ON DRUNKENNESS CHARGE

Florence Baegme, 38, 940 S. Main-st., was arrested by police Saturday night on a charge of drunkenness, pleaded not guilty when arraigned in criminal court Monday. Trial was set for late Monday. Chief of Police Roush declared this is the third time she has been arrested during 1920, the other times being August 10 on a statutory charge and August 13 for forfeiting bond.

Hearing of J. E. Gose, 28, brake man, 506 Elmwood arrested on a drunk and disorderly conduct charge was continued until Tuesday.

LOVE GOD LAUGHS AT OLD HIGH COST

The high cost of living was no deterrent for the little love god to cease his labors in October.

According to statistics announced by the Allen-co marriage clerk Monday, 73 couples secured licenses to wed last month, as against 60 in October, 1919.

This, too, despite the fact that houses are scarce and hard to find and rent and coal are items to be considered.

The month held a record for the large number of aged couples and persons over 50 who secured licenses.

SUBMITS TO SURGERY

Mrs. N. W. Swanger, 849 W. Wayne-st., was subjected to a serious operation for the removal of tumor at a private hospital in Ann Arbor, Mich., Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Swanger were visiting their sister, Mrs. Ida Rimer, in Ann Arbor, when Mrs. Swanger was stricken.

HARDING 'READY TO ABIDE RESULT'

Smiles When Asked for Prediction—Ends Campaign

MARION. (By Associated Press)—His campaigning over and his final analysis of campaign issues laid before the people on a pre-election statement, Senator Harding took a rest Monday from the long and arduous labors of the presidential contest.

A smile answered those who asked for his prediction of the outcome of Tuesday's balloting, and in place of any special pre-election claim, he called attention to his public utterances of the past few weeks, in which he has declared many times that he fully expected to be inaugurated next March as the nation's chief executive.

Detailed forecast of the result the nominee left to his party managers, saying that he had made his fight to the best of his ability and was ready to abide by the result.

In the precinct where he has voted for more than 30 years, the senator will record Tuesday his one vote among the millions that are to decide the complexion of the next administration in both executive and legislative branches. He and Mrs. Harding, who has been his constant companion throughout his campaigning, plan to go to the polls early in the afternoon and to spend the remainder of the day quietly at home.

A straight Republican ticket has been recommended to the voters by the candidate repeatedly in his public addresses. Several times he has declared that he did not want to be elected president unless a Republican congress were chosen to translate the party's legislative promises into performance, and in every state where he has spoken he has made an appeal for selection of a Republican senate to "advise and consent" in the formulation of a foreign policy.

RUNNING THE LIE TO EARTH

Here is a letter which Sherwood P. Snyder, of 705 West 3rd street Dayton, Ohio, received in response to an inquiry addressed to Prof. Chancellor, the alleged author of the lie:

CHANCELLOR'S LETTER TO SNYDER

WOOSTER, O., Oct. 22, 1920

"Dear Sir—I know nothing of the question you ask and think what you have heard is quite false.

There is another family of the name of "HARDIN" at Marion, which is of mixed blood. There is no connection between the two families of HARDIN and HARDING."

Here is the sworn statement, signed by Prof. Chancellor in the presence of Dean Elias Compton of Wooster university:

"As to the Harding ancestry, I hereby certify that I am in no way responsible for, never wrote, never authorized to write and KNOW NOTHING whatever about the circulars bearing my name or any other paper. That is my signature.

(Signed) WILLIAM ESTABROOK CHANCELLOR.

Sworn to and subscribed in my presence this, the 28th day of October, 1920.

(Signed) JAMES R. McLAUGHLIN, Notary Public.

Democrat Denounces A Malicious Lie

WHICH IS BEING CIRCULATED BY CRIPPLED SCOUNDRELS IN THIS COUNTY

Hon. D. R. Crissinger, one of Marion's leading attorneys and most influential citizens, has written a letter to James M. Light, now editor of the Greenville Tribune, in which he denounces the character of the campaign now being conducted by the Democratic party.

Mr. Crissinger has been a lifelong Democrat and has known the Hardings for over fifty years, and stamps as a malicious political lie, the statement now being made about Senator Harding's parentage.

Mr. Light published this letter in the Greenville Tribune, which is as follows:

Marion, O., Oct. 14, 1920. James M. Light, Greenville, O.

Dear Sir: One of our leading citizens, M. L. Gorton was in the city on the sad mission of burying his brother, and on a visit to your office to secure newspapers, he advises me that you handed him a copy of the malicious and false statements that are being made about the lineage of our distinguished citizen, Senator Warren G. Harding, which copy he handed to me.

I have been a personal friend of the Hardings for more than fifty years; I know his mother, I know his father, I know his aunts and his grandmother. Mr. Harding has in his veins a rich mixture of Scotch, Irish, English and Dutch blood, and his genealogical history takes him back prior to the Revolutionary war. His ancestors have had a notable and distinguished record from before Revolutionary times down to date, and if Senator Harding is elected President, as he surely will be, he will enter the White House with a lineage dating farther back into the colonial history of our own country than any other of our presidents.

There never has been such a cruel, outrageous, contemptible and malicious political lie put out by any party in the history of the country as this is, and it is done for the purpose of influencing the voters to vote against Senator Harding.

I have always been a Democrat, but it strikes me that a Democratic campaign based upon such malicious falsehoods is unworthy of the great party and should be overwhelmingly rebuked at the November election. Very truly yours, (signed) D. R. Crissinger.

Seeks Votes by the Most Cowardly and Contemptible Method Ever Employed in American Politics

Adjutant General Roy E. Layton, a Cox Lieutenant, Caused Lying Statements to be Typewritten Here Concerning Warren G. Harding, One of America's Noblest and Greatest Citizens

TO THE DECENT MEN AND WOMEN OF ALLEN COUNTY.

At this late hour in the campaign it has become our duty to expose the most damnable conspiracy ever hatched in the history of American politics. Even in the precincts where panders and moral degenerates sink about in dark corners no vile plot was ever conceived than that which began in whispers and culminated a day or so ago in the circulation of numerous typewritten statements under the heading, "Harding's Family Tree."

The time has come to speak plainly about this matter.

These circulars declare that Warren G. Harding has negro blood in his veins.

The answer is that these circulars are malicious and intentional lies, manufactured by degenerate scoundrels solely for political purposes.

Warren G. Harding has only the blood of the white race in his veins. He is related to the Crawford family of this county and Dr. H. B. Frazier and Jacob Piester, of this city, has known the Harding family for fifty years. We print below a letter from D. R. Crissinger, president of a Marion bank and a member of Congress, a Democrat and friend of J. H. Cocks of Lima, in which he denounces the outrageous lie.

THIS CIRCULAR COMES DIRECT FROM THE COX GANG AT COLUMBUS.

IT WAS BROUGHT TO WAPAKONETA BY ADJUTANT GENERAL ROY E. LAYTON, A MEMBER OF COX'S STAFF, who expected to profit by this vile slander by being continued in some position which he has neither the ability nor the character to fill. Like other contemptible curs, Layton was too cowardly to print it and sign his name as this is being signed, but, like a sneaking character assassin, he had copies taken on a mimeograph and they were handed out by some "sewer rats" in the pay of the Democratic party.

THIS IS NOT A MERE CHARGE. WE HAVE THE PROOF AT HAND.

People of Allen County! Shall such a campaign be tolerated? Shall degenerate scoundrels, merely to secure office, be allowed to ruin the standing of such men as Senator Harding, who is a man of noble character and of spotless life?

SHALL THEY BE PERMITTED TO DRAG INTO THE GUTTER EVEN THE MANNER IN WHICH YOU WORSHIP YOUR GOD, AS THEY HAVE BEEN DOING HERE?

If your answer to this is "No," as it must be if you believe it right, in justice, THEN GO TO THE POLLS TUESDAY AND VOTE FOR SENATOR HARDING.

HE STANDS FOR DECENCY.

COX STANDS FOR THAT SYMBOL OF HELL—

A LIE.

BY MARGARET SIMPSON

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Daymon, 8 Elizabeth-st., entertained with a beautifully appointed dinner at their home Sunday evening for the pleasure of a number of friends. A caudron banked with lavender and white chrysanthemums centered the table with lavender streamers to each cover. Upon pulling the streamers each guest found a small Halloween favor. The appointments also carried out the predominant color scheme of lavender and white.

Guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Alexander and son Arthur, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Blair, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Roder, daughters Olive, Pearl and son Raymond, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Keller.

Delightful in every detail was the Halloween party given by little Richard Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl C. Miller, W. North-st. Saturday afternoon. Grinning pumpkin faces peeped from corn fodder barked in the corner of the rooms and the lights were softened with yellow shades. Following an afternoon of games and contests the host's mother served a delicious luncheon.

Guests included: Rhoda John, Jean Shepherd, Janet Scalls, Dorothy Hare, Jane Marie Green, Marion Stevens, Jean Metzger, Richard Black, Robert Blue, Clarence Snook, William Douglas, Leslie Stevens, Samuel Schmitzer and Troy Belknap.

The members of the Lohila Camp Fire entertained with a "kid party" at the home of Miss Thelma Schlusser Saturday evening. The evening was spent with games, contests and dancing. Later a delicious two course luncheon was served.

Those enjoying the delightful affair were: Miss Ruth Bartlett, Eleanor Sullivan, Florence Newman, Isabelle Glensier, Hollister, Janet White, Margaret Williams, Helen Sidner, Helen Hamilton, Doris Cook, Eleanor Hawisher, Christine Rinkley, Betty Ray, Norrid Neuman, Garnet Howell, Helen Hughes, Lucille Webb, Jane Swan, Norma Cullen, Dorothy Benson, Rachael Lemon, Leah Montague, and Leon Johnson.

A merry crowd of boys and girls were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Sullivan, 135 W. O'Connor-ave., with their son, Joe, as host. The home was prettily decorated with Halloween novelties. Following a social evening a delicious luncheon was served.

Among those in attendance were: Fred Winkler, Cletus Brennan, Celestine Seitz, Leon Feldhake, Paul Walter, Joe Scully, James Brennan, Alvin Vlenker, Minor Kerr, Clarence O'Connor, Tom Mahoney, John Scully, Tom Leahy, Richard Finn, Raymond O'Brien, Joseph Raymond and Bob Sullivan.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Dunn, W. Market-st., and daughter, Miss Marian and Miss Gertrude House, will leave Wednesday by motor for Washington, D. C. They will stop at a number of points of interest en route to visit with friends.

Mrs. R. E. Rafferty, and sons, Paul and Homer, Miss Cordelia Shultz, 515 S. Metcalf-st., and Mrs. Ella Orr, S. Pine-st., visited to St. Mary's, where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Burden.

The Etude club will hold a meeting Tuesday morning at the home of Mrs. Andrew Dimond, corner of W. Elm and Jameson-ave. Miss Ella Eysenbach will be leader.

Mrs. George Kirk, 1124 W. Wayne-st., will entertain her home, Monday evening for the entertainment of the Past Matron's club of the Trinity Chapter of the O. E. S.

The Women's Board of Managers of the City hospital will meet Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock.

The Euba Haking Missionary society will meet Monday evening with Miss Marion Wallburg, 506 E. Fureka-st.

Mrs. Charles R. Rhode, 850 W. Elm-st., will entertain the members of the Franklin club at her home all day Friday.

Mrs. Bessie Friends, DeGraff, has been visiting for the past several days at the home of Lydia Miller, W. Market-st.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kemmer and children, Marion, Ind., were the weekend guests at the C. G. Kemmer home, W. North-st.

NEW PARIS HATS SHOW DROOPING FEATHER TRIMS

Feathers are appearing on most of the new Paris hats, and very nicely feathered they are, too. They either fall down into the eyes, little the ears, or curl about one's neck like little false ringlets. This is quite true of all the newer models which are being imported. The feathers are usually curled or uncurled ostrich, gaur, paradise, burnt goose, and come. They are used in a bewitching fashion on both large and small hats. Here is a stunning velvet turban which comes direct from Paris and shows exactly how willful feathers may be. It is a smart hat for semi-dress occasions and is particularly effective for restaurant or early dinner wear with the new black satin or lace frocks. It is fashioned of burnt orange velvet in a draped model with a tuft of paradise drooping in a very sophisticated manner over lady's right cheek. The lines of the hat are simple and graceful and yet effective is very unusual.

The annual fall festival of the St. Gerard Parish will be held at the church auditorium on November 24th. The committee in charge includes John Scully, Edward Finn, T. E. Shanahan, Mrs. Mary Murphy, Mrs. J. S. Murphy, Mrs. John Walsh and Miss Theresa Elmer.

Mrs. Harry Wright, W. Market-st., has returned from an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. W. S. Palmer in Sharon, Pa. She also visited with her son, Henry, a student at Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y., and with Mr. and Mrs. Faye in Pittsburgh, Pa.

The Matron's society of the Market-st. Presbyterian church will meet Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. G. Graham, 347 S. Cole-st. The hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. Graham, Mrs. D. L. Sherwood, Mrs. S. B. Douglas, Mrs. C. L. Yakey, Mrs. W. A. Campbell and Mrs. T. R. Thomas.

Mrs. S. M. Williams, Lakewood, left Sunday evening for Cleveland, where she will spend several days.

Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Yates and son, Ada, were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Fees, 1040 W. High-st.

The Women's Board of Managers of the City hospital will meet Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock.

The Euba Haking Missionary society will meet Monday evening with Miss Marion Wallburg, 506 E. Fureka-st.

Mrs. Charles R. Rhode, 850 W. Elm-st., will entertain the members of the Franklin club at her home all day Friday.

Mrs. Bessie Friends, DeGraff, has been visiting for the past several days at the home of Lydia Miller, W. Market-st.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kemmer and children, Marion, Ind., were the weekend guests at the C. G. Kemmer home, W. North-st.

NEW RAIN STICKS APLENTRY FOR MILADY.

By ELOISE.
As some enterprising umbrella merchant said in his advertisement: "The rain it raineth every day. Upon the just and unjust fella. But mostly on the just because the unjust has the just's umbrella."

Which is just about the predicament in which many of us find ourselves on rainy days. A good way to ward this off is to have an armful of umbrellas like the pretty girl in the picture, but we can't all do that. The next best thing is to get one good umbrella and hang on to it. The newest rain sticks are quite fascinating both as a color and design. There seems to be something for every whim and fancy of the most fastidious miss or matron.

Dama Fashion has decreed that milady must carry a smart umbrella in some vivid silk this season. The fashion is really a very attractive one because it makes the drab, dismal, rainy days more cheerful. This collection of pretty rain sticks includes silks of red, green, purple, bright blue and orange brown shades. There are also a few stripes and every umbrella shows a most interesting handle in ivory or amber or else a leather strap.

Nut and Macaroni Savory—Cut one cup of beiled macaroni into bowl. Add one-half pound chopped Brazil or other nuts, one and three-quarters cups bread crumbs. Salt pepper and powdered mace to taste. Two tablespoons chopped parsley, two eggs well beaten, three cups milk.

Mix and turn into well greased earthenware dish. Pour over top three tablespoons of melted butter substitute. Sprinkle with cracker dust and cheese grated. Bake forty-five minutes in moderate oven.

Salmon Soup—Purify one can of salmon, add one quart milk, one tablespoon butter, salt and pepper to taste, heat to boiling point, then pour slowly into two well beaten eggs, return to stove for two minutes; serve piping hot.

Shortcake—To four cups of flour sift five tablespoons of baking powder. Add five tablespoons of lard and mix whole combination with cold water sufficient to make a dough. Then take enough dough to fit the baking tin; roll it out and place it in tin on top of first roll; making two rolls and spreading butter between them. The cutting of the cake while still hot and the resulting heaviness is avoided.

Now place the tin in the oven and bake twenty to twenty-five minutes, depending on whether gas or coal is used. Meantime prepare one and one-half quarts of any berries, and when cake is baked through spread the berries between the layers and on top. Serve while hot.

With Women of Today

The Hampstead Garden Suburb Trust, Ltd., was founded after an article by Mrs. S. A. Barnett had been published in the "Contemporary Review" of February, 1905. Today, after fifteen years, Mrs. Henrietta Octavia Barnett, 35 in this country to tell us about her very successful plan which has been flourishing for fifteen years and which has paid subscribers a straight five per cent dividend.

The object of the Garden Suburb was "to place within the reach of members of the industrial classes the opportunities of taking a cottage with a garden, where the family labor would produce vegetables, fruit and flowers, and add to health and pleasure; to promote a better understanding between various classes by arranging that people with all standards of income should live on the same estate; and to preserve all natural beauty and free lay out the ground that every tree might be kept and the buildings kept in harmony with the surroundings."

Madame Henrietta Barnett.

Madame Barnett, who is now known one of England's experts on housing conditions, is touring this country and telling of her solution which has proved so successful. At first people said it could not be done, but today the government is modeling its villages on these plans. There are about 2,000 houses in Hampstead garden now, housing about 10,000 people. Each house has a garden and a bathroom. The most expensive rent is about seven dollars a week and the cheapest about sixty cents per week.

According to Mrs. Barnett, the essentials of a home are: Space for air and space for sunlight, a place for rest, interest and hope. Madame Barnett founded the children's fresh air camp in 1917, the first settlement house in London in 1886, and was the first woman ever appointed by the government as guardian of the poor. With her husband, Canon Barnett of Westminster Abbey, she lived for forty-three years among London's poor in the Whitechapel district. Her model suburb is five miles from Charing Cross. The infant mortality rate in Whitechapel and other poorer districts of London is 165

dents per 1,000 children yearly. In the Hampstead garden suburb the rate is 11.2 per 1,000. The figures are significant of what can be done when children are given a chance. PIONEER ALASKA DENTIST
Leslie Von M. Zesch of San Francisco is the first woman to practice dentistry in Alaska. UNIQUE POSITION
Miss Sophie Marie Hamant is the only woman among six persons handling a foreign exchange department in this country. She manages such a department in the office of the Cincinnati representative of the Guaranty Trust Company of New York. One hundred and thirty-five backs, merchants and manufacturers depend on Miss Hamant for their daily information about foreign exchange rates. She was formerly a teacher of English, literature, fencing and physical culture.

Mothers! Give The Little One's Syrup Pepsin

They like Dr. Caldwell's, and it quickly relieves their constipation and headaches.

BEGIN to teach the child regular daily elimination as young as possible, and much constipation will be avoided later in life. The most convenient hour throughout life is immediately upon arising. It does not then interfere with play, school or work.

When in spite of your efforts a member of the family becomes constipated, give Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin in the size dose directed on the bottle. It is a mild, gentle laxative safe for young babies; effective for grownups. It is the largest selling liquid laxative in the world, and most economical as a sixty cent bottle will last you many months.

For your information, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a compound of Egyptian Senna and other simple laxative herbs with pepsin and pleasant-tasting aromatics. Look on it as a good family friend, useful to relieve constipation and symptoms like headache, biliousness, colds, fever, bad breath, loss of appetite and sleep. It is no exaggeration to say that millions of families are never without a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It safeguards their health.

PAINS NEARLY DOUBLED ME UP

Nothing Helped Me Until I Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Wyandotte, Mich.—"For the last four years I have doctored off and on without help. I have had pains every month so bad that I would nearly double up. Sometimes I could not sweep a room without stopping to rest, and everything I ate upset my stomach. Three years ago I lost a child and suffered so badly that I was out of my head at times. My bowels did not move for days and I could not eat without suffering. The doctor could not help me and one day I told my husband that I could not stand the pain any longer and sent him to the drug-store to get me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and threw the doctor's medicine away. After taking three bottles of Vegetable Compound and using two bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Rare Food, I could do my own housework. It had not been for your medicine I don't know where I would be today and I am never without a bottle of it in the house. You may publish this if you like that it may help some other women."—Mrs. M. ## The Palace of Darkened Windows

BY MARY HASTINGS BRADLEY

"How interesting!" said Miss Falconer, with more cordiality than she had shown on the previous occasion. "How very interesting! So you are an artist—I do a little sketching myself, you know."

"You do happen in the most unexpected places," smiled Lady Claire. "The English girl looked very cool and sweet and fresh to the heated painter. His impression of her as a nice girl and a pretty girl was speedily reinforced, and he remembered that dark-haired girl with gray-blue eyes under dusky lashes had been his favorite type not so long ago . . . before he had seen Alice's fairy gold."

"We're just being driven thru the cemetery—such interesting tombs," said the elder lady, and Lady Claire added, "I should think you could get better views there than here."

By this time they had reached the easel and stood back of it in observation.

Blue, intensely blue, and thickly blue was the sky that Billy had lavished. Green and rigid were the palms. Purple was the palace. Very black lay the shadows like planks across the orange road.

Miss Falconer looked as if she doubted her own eyes. Hastily she unfolded her lorgnette.

"It—it's just blocked in," said Billy, speaking with a peculiar diffidence.

"Quite so—quite so," murmured the lady, bending closer, as if fascinated.

Lady Claire said nothing. Stealing a look at her, Billy saw that she was looking it instead.

Miss Falconer tried another angle. The sight of that lorgnette had a stiffening effect upon Billy. "You get the—ah—symphonic chord I'm striking?"

"Chord?" said Miss Falconer. "Striking?" she murmured in a peculiar voice.

"It's all in thirds, you see," he continued.

"Thirds!" came the echo. "Perhaps you're of the old school?" he observed.

"Really—I must be!" agreed the lady.

"Ah!" said Billy softly, commiseratingly. He cocked his head at an angle opposite from the seat of the lorgnette and stared his own amazing canvas out of countenance.

"Then, of course," he said "this hardly conveys—"

"What are you?" she demanded. "Is this a—school?"

"I?" He seemed surprised that there could be any doubt about it. "I am a Post-Modernist."

Miss Falconer turned the lorgnette upon him. "Oh, really," she said vaguely. "I fancy I've heard something of that—you're quite new and radical, aren't you?"

"Oh, we're old," he said gently. "Very, very old. We have returned to Nature—but not the nature of mere academicians. We paint, not the world of the camera, but the world of the brain. We paint, not the thing you think you see, but the way you think you see it—its vibrations of your inner mentality. To paint the apple ripening on the bough one should reproduce the gentle swelling of the maturing fruit in your perception . . . Now, you see, I am not trying to reproduce the precise carving of that door; I do not fix the waviness of that palm. I give you the cerebral—"

"Quite so," said Miss Falconer, dropping her lorgnette and giving the canvas the flury of her unobstructed gaze. "It's most interesting," she said, a little faintly. "Are there many of you?"

"I don't know," said Billy. "We do not communicate with one another. That always influences, you know, and it is better to work out thought alone."

"I should think it would be," something in her tone suggested that the isolated solitude of the asylum suggested itself to her as a fitting spot. "Well, we won't interrupt you any longer. You've been most interesting . . . The sun is quite hot, isn't it?" and with one long, lingering look at the picture, she went her way toward the victoria.

DIARY OF AN ENGAGED GIRL

PHYLLIS PHILLIPS

THE SEQUEL

But that isn't the half of it. The climax came in the evening and thusly:

"Mother and I dined at our hotel and then we went out for a little walk in the Borghese Gardens. It was a heavenly moonlight night and there was a golden joy somewhere in my throat, just for the sheer joy of living, of being young and happy and in Rome on such a night."

Mother was most loquacious, and went on telling me how romantic my daddy had been as a young man, while she, well, she had always kept her head, but she would seem from her accounts. She sort of condescended to lean her loveliness near to his ardent heart. I should have known that woman can be such an absurdity, an excellent housekeeper and executive quantity who has deep sentiments, or is romantic. No, the two do not mix at all. And little Lindsey is daddy's daughter. It's frightful to think of all he missed if mother was so unresponsive and all that? Still dad always looks as if he, too, had seen the land beyond the moon. Maybe he is like me and has a phylander in his time? Who knows?

We sat for an hour under the cypress trees and the scent of the night crept and seeped into every bit of me in a maddening way. Once I thought that I saw a shadowy form flit thru the trees. My thoughts flew to Ettore.

Once back at the hotel I as dutifully with mother for a few minutes and then went up to my own room. It was such a gorgeous night the my room was flooded with moonlight and I decided against turning on the light and sat down in a dream to stretch myself and bemoan.

And then—how shall I tell it? I heard a heavenly sweet voice somewhere in the street and just below my window raised in song. "Rose, Rose!"—one pregnant with love and sentiment and passion; I started up in joy at the beauty of the serenade and wondered who on earth of all the lovers of the earth could be down there singing to his love.

And then I knew, for I stole to the window, softly, so as not to break the spell, and drawing my silk wrap round me a bit tighter, I leaned out of the window. Clear by the light of the moon, I saw my Ettore. His love song I knew was meant for me. He stopped as soon as he had finished the second verse and raised his arms to me, supplicatingly. There was only one thing to do, and I did it. I blew him a dozen kisses. Then, with a motion of his arm and he d, he motioned for me to come down and follow him. Did I hesitate? Not for long, for I knew that mother must be settled by this time and that I was being offered the key to the Garden of Paradise. And that's all there was to it, except that I ran down and out into my adorer's arms, so to speak, and then palpitating at my own daring, I let him lead me back into the Borkhese Gardens to a secluded spot. We sat down and listened to the thumping of our own wild hearts before we could even say each other's names. That's Italian love—and oh, there is really so much more to it—and ever, thing that I feel quite dazed at my own self for ever thinking of any other man on earth.

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F.M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system. If you have a pale face, yellow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets monthly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for castor—now and then just to keep them fit, luscious and trim.

"Do Things Get On Your Nerves?"

Try Doan's Kidney Pills

if you feel nervous and irritable all the time and continually worry over trifles, there's something wrong. Don't give up, back of it all may be just weak kidneys. Just as nerve wear is a cause of kidney weakness, so is kidney trouble a cause of nervousness. If you have backache, "blues," dizzy, nervous spells, headache, kidney irregularities, a tired, worn feeling, try Doan's Kidney Pills. They are recommended by thousands. Ask your neighbor!

HOW A LIMA WOMAN WAS FREED

Mrs. A. T. Marshall, 463 W. Waltey St., says: "My back ached and I had dull, bearing-down pains thru it, especially after I overworked. I couldn't lift much and every time I did a hard day's work, my back ached awful. Sometimes I was quite dizzy and for a minute or so everything turned dark. I began using Doan's Kidney Pills and found them to be helpful. They relieved the pain in my back and I felt better all over."

Save money on your butter without sacrificing quality!

If a new butter man were to offer you fresh creamery butter for considerably less than you've been paying, wouldn't you buy from him?

Suppose you could secure something that tastes exactly like the freshest creamery butter—a butter-spread that your family—and your guests would compliment—that is as wholesome and delicious and digestible as creamery butter—and sells for much less—then wouldn't that be the same as buying creamery butter for a lower price?

You can do just this if you use Golmar. It gives you every advantage of the best creamery butter. We challenge you to tell any difference between them, no matter how you use Golmar. Nor can your family tell any difference.

Golmar is churned fresh daily—comes to you in perfect condition. It is made of the choicest coconut oils instead of dairy products. It is less expensive than butter because coconut oil can be produced more economically than dairy products. It stays fresh amply long enough for a small family to use a pound.

Get a package from your dealer today and find out for yourself that Golmar really is as good in every way as the finest creamery butter. Your money cheerfully refunded if you are not entirely satisfied. You owe it to yourself to find out.

The Famous Golmar Test Example No. 16 Golmar on Pancakes

PLACE a pat of Golmar and one of creamery butter side by side. Spread one pancake with Golmar and another with the fresh creamery butter. Take a bite of one and then of the other. We challenge you to tell which is Golmar. Golmar is the equal of and is equalled only by fresh creamery butter.

The same coloring matter used in creamery butter is supplied with Golmar so you can color it at home and save the tax of 10 cents per pound which the Government would collect if Golmar were colored by the makers.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL SEASON PASSES HALF WAY MARK

N. D. CATHOLICS SPRING GREAT SURPRISE IN EASTERN GRIDIRON CAMPS IN GAME WITH ARMY SATURDAY—MICHIGAN NEXT FOR OHIO STATE

ILLINOIS AND OHIO MAY AGAIN CLASH FOR BIG TEN TITLE

Altho the football season has only passed the half way mark, it is beginning to look as if the same conditions will prevail this year as last, when Illinois and Ohio State met in the final game for the western conference championship and Notre Dame had strong claims to the middle west title because the Hoosiers completed their schedule without defeat.

Of course, Ohio State must win from Michigan next Saturday to take the field against Illinois with a clean slate. On the other hand, the Orange and Blue must defeat Chicago next Saturday, and on the following week, and must be returned the victor over Wisconsin to make the meeting at Urbana on Nov. 20 a championship affair.

Chicago's defeat by the Buckeyes, 7 to 6, eliminated the Maroons as a championship possibility. In addition, the struggle may end the Midway between the powers of Ohio and Illinois, the main ones in the forward pass attack. If the men are defeated for Saturday's game, Illinois will win, and then have only to jump the Wisconsin in battle to be in a commanding position to retain the honors won a year ago.

John Richards, coach of the Badgers, who was an interested spectator at the Illinois-Minnesota game last Saturday, is firm in his belief he can beat Coach Zappella eleven to the sumo as he did last year. The Wisconsin member, however, is not losing sight of Minnesota, which must be beaten next Saturday at Minneapolis for the Badgers to enter certain hopes of going into a tie for conference honors.

RACE MAY BE SCRAMBLED
It will be readily seen that a lot of good football will be played in the middle west, before the curtain drops on Nov. 20, Chicago will fight Illinois all the way, while there are not a few who believe Michigan will defeat Ohio State next Saturday. Minnesota supporters, encouraged by the team's showing against Illinois, look for a victory over Wisconsin, which in turn is confident of beating Illinois. Unless either Illinois or Ohio State completes their schedules without defeat, there will not be an undisputed western conference champion this year.

While Ohio won from Chicago by the slender margin of a goal, kick, the Buckeyes did not show the strength expected. The vaunted overhead attack failed to fool the Maroons, while the Ohio straight attack was not as strong as predicted. It may be that Coach Wilson, by holding his plays in reserve, but this seems improbable, as Chicago gained an early advantage and tried to work on the margin of six points for the remainder of the game.

YOST SIZES UP BUCKEYES
Coach Yost of Michigan was an interested spectator at the game, and he will start the Wolverine to work today with first hand information of the Buckeyes. This game cannot be considered a set up for Ohio, by any means.

Boys Ride Bumpers to See Purple Play; Are Pinched, Then Freed

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. — Two students of Northwestern university were arraigned in the local police court Monday on a charge of trespass, preferred by Pennsylvania railroad officials. Albert Vann, 21, and Nelson S. Wotling, 22, were the boys, and they were "beating" their way to Indianapolis to attend the football game between Northwestern and Indiana. They told the judge they were without sufficient funds to reach Indianapolis and started to ride the bumpers. "Accquitted," said the court, "hurry or you will be late for the game."

OLYMPIC BOARD GIVES REPLY

NEW YORK — The American Olympic committee in a preliminary statement replying to complaints by some members of the Olympic games athletes regarding accommodations to and from Antwerp on the transport Princess Matoika, today said that unavoidable circumstances made impossible better treatment of the athletes. A more complete report of the committee will be made on December 4.

Financial handicaps and the sudden shift from the expected use of the transport Northern Pacific, were given as factors in the unsatisfactory treatment.

NOTRE DAME ELEVEN RANKS WITH BEST

BY HENRY L. FARRILL
NEW YORK — If Notre Dame and Penn State could be brought together, a national football championship would not be mythical.

With the season more than half over, these two mighty eleven took by far the best record in the gridiron.

Many think a post-season game between the pair unnecessary, fearing the westerners the decision by a big margin.

After seeing Notre Dame win the Army Saturday, the best critics of the east are racing about the Indiana eleven.

N. D. BEST IN FIELD
Due to the good fortune of having an unusually large number of inter-sectional games, the east has been the best of the south and middle west and Notre Dame looks to be the best of the east.

Not only are those westerners being hailed to the stars at the east, but four of the South Bend stars are being nominated for all-American honors.

George Gump, the sensational half-back, who alone gained 236 yards, looks to be the best seen in the east since the days of the great Red Grange. He is sure of one place on the mythical eleven.

TED LEWIS SAILS TO FIGHT IN EUROPE; HOPES TO MEET BRITTON NEXT SPRING

Ted Lewis, his wife and their son Morton, photographed before sailing from New York.

Ted Lewis, former welterweight champion, has sailed again for Europe to meet the leading battlers there. Lewis was across last winter and had a successful tour. He hopes to return early in the spring to seek another match with Jack Britton, welter king, who wrestled the title from him. Mrs. Lewis and Morton Lewis, son, accompanied the battler.

ANTI-SOCIALISTS WIN
ROME — Anti-Socialist candidates were victorious in the municipal elections held here Sunday, being given large majorities. There was great enthusiasm shown by the people during the election, and processions bearing national flags paraded in the streets.

Riley and Anderson are the best odds to appear in the east and Frank Conklin, captain, looks to be sure of one tackle position.

Penn State, Pittsburgh, Harvard, Princeton and Cornell remain undefeated among the most prominent contenders in the east.

Chicago dropped out of the Western conference race by losing to Ohio.

The honors among the "big ten" new lie between Ohio and Illinois which fought it out last year.

Georgetown leads the pack in the south since Centre was defeated by Georgia Tech.

Harvard, to date looks the strongest of the "big three" and the favorite for the annual classic that starts next Saturday with the Harvard-Princeton battle.

"THEN THE FUN BEGAN"
BLAINE, Ohio — Two young sons of Charles Slaughter decided to cook a meal while their parents were away. The fire did not start rapidly enough, so they obtained gasoline from an auto and poured it into the kitchen stove. Neighbors saved the house.

'BEAT OHIO STATE' IS MICHIGAN'S SLOGAN

ANN ARBOR, Mich. — "Beat Ohio State and Chicago" is the slogan which Wolverine followers have adopted for their motto since the game with Illinois. The entire Michigan camp is enthusiastic with the spirit of winning all of the remaining games on the schedule. And from the way in which the team performed against Illinois last week, followers of the Maize and Blue feel they are not asking for impossibilities.

After the Case game at the start of the season, Michigan was hopeful, after the Michigan Aggie game Michigan was cheerful; while after the Illinois game, Michigan has been confident, and it is that sort of confidence which instills fighting spirit in to a team.

Coach Yost realizes that Michigan still has a big chance and immediately after the Illinois game the squad began working out for Ohio State. Tulane did not receive any attention during the last week—it was the big game that the coaches had their eyes on.

Ohio State is reported to have the forward pass down to a science, but Yost has drilled his backfield men constantly for more than a week on breaking up pass formations, and with Nelson, Perin and Stoketec, drilled in this department, it is expected the Ohio warriors will have trouble with the passing game when they meet the powerful Michigan eleven.

ON HUNT FOR KICKERS
It was kicking that lost the Illinois contest and consequently Coach Yost and his assistants have spent much time the past week in trying to unearth kickers. Stoketec is probably the best punter on the squad, but at present is suffering somewhat from leg injuries. It is expected that Stoketec will be in shape for the Ohio State battle, but in an effort to develop other punters, the entire squad was given a trial at the kicking game last week. Capt. Goetz and Van Orden showed up best in these drills.

Goetz was schooled in kicking goals from the twenty yard line during the week and Vick and Duke Danno were given practice in kicking off from midfield.

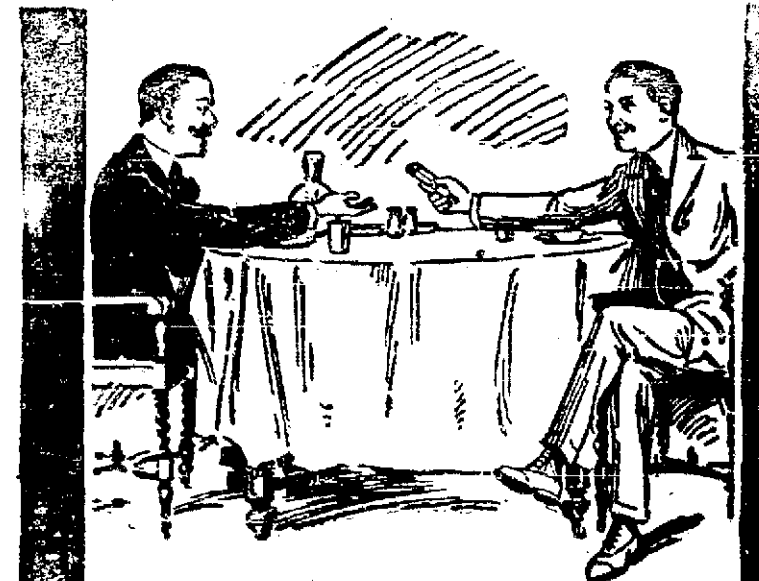

Duke Danno the Chicago lad who is proving to be one of the mainstays of the line this season is developing into one of the best guards Michigan has had in years. In the selection of next year's captain, Danno should stand about an even chance with Frank Stoketec for the honor.

RUTH MAKES HIS CUBA DEBUT
HAVANA—"Babe" Ruth, home run king of the New York Yankees, made his debut here Sunday as a player with the New York Giants in their series with the Havana team. He was accorded an enthusiastic ovation by the Cuban fans. A tripe and a double were the best Ruth could provide in the game, which was won by the Giants, 4 to 3.

WIFE SAYS CHICK LEAVES TEXAS
HOUSTON, Texas—Chick Gandil, one of the White Sox players indicted by the grand jury in Chicago in connection with the probe of crooked baseball, left Lufkin, Texas, yesterday for Los Angeles, his wife said, over the long distance telephone today. Mrs. Gandil, with whose family Gandil has been staying following an operation in a Lufkin hospital, said she did not know what Chick was going to do in Los Angeles.

THEATER ROBBED
TOLEDO — Cracksmen Sunday night blew open the safe of the Pantheon theatre, one of the largest motion picture houses in the city, and obtained $1,000, representing Saturday night and Sunday receipts. The yeagmen entered thru the front door.

DEAR PETEY:

Bet you a house and lot you'd stay in W-S a month if you ever got to know folks here like I have. Between business and Reynolds factories and a bully time—well my date book has been bubbling over! And, I'm still running into facts that would stagger even your imagination, old football, with all your kick!

Pete, take it straight from government figures direct to you, that every work day in the week R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. buys from our "Uncle Sam" enough revenue stamps to pay for a duplicate of the handsome new Winston-Salem post office building! Ever hear of such a thing?

And, if you want to get an eyefull of an army of more than 15,000 people, be down in the Reynolds factory district when the whistles blow! Never saw such a cigarette firing-up time in my life!

Peter, everytime you light a Camel in the future, call back on what I've slipped you about Camels—absolutely, the greatest cigarette at any price—for quality, for refreshing flavor, for mellow mild body, for freedom from any unpleasant cigarette aftertaste or odor! It's worth the busiest smoker's time to compare Camels with any cigarette in the world! Camels are simply a revelation! You know that.

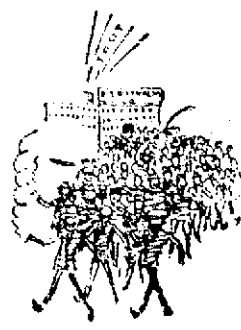

I'll open my eyes in Atlanta tomorrow! In the meantime here's a wad of best wishes I have in stock!

Yours

Shorty.

EARLE WILLIAMS IN GOOD PLAY

"The Romance Promoter" Has
Story of Interest to Tell

IS TOLD SPLENDIDLY, TOO

"Harriet and the Piper" Sermon
on Free Love Affairs

(BY ESTHER WAGNER)
BECAUSE of the fact that Earle Williams has the leading role in it, "The Romance Promoter" appearing at the Sigma, should prove a reasonably pleasing program picture. It has a story to tell, and tells it in a clear, well-photographed manner, tho it will never set the screen afire or create much excitement.

When a bunch of trustees of the wealthy Mr. Loris, by various crooked dealings, sought to keep the beautiful Miss Loris from annoyance by suitors, it was the watchful Mr. King, who had been killed by one Jason Rogers to protect the young lady, who stepped in and fixed everything up fine. Yes, he protected her fine—he even married her to do it, and incidentally, to fool the trustees. All of which sounds more or less complicated, doesn't it?

Be assured, however, that Mr. Williams does creditable work as Mr. King, and Miss Helen Ferguson, as the heiress in distress, is rather charming at times. There are some beautiful out-door scenes and gorgeous interiors, a nasty little Italian villain and the whole crew of crooked trustees to inveigle you, a few humorous situations and an abduction that takes your breath for a minute.

"The Romance Promoter" is, technically, to be commended.

Harriet and the Piper

THIS is really the best picture in which Anita Stewart has appeared for some time. From the pen of Kathleen Norris, it's a sermon on free love affairs and, tho many people were heard to say that the picture is a trifle spicy, it is an ordinary tale of a young country girl who tired of small town life, became attracted to the Bohemian quarter of New York, met a group of the wild and free ultra-moderns and ultimately met Royal Blon- din, a handsome free-love advocate.

She is easily convinced by the man Blon- din that convention is a useless code and went thru the ceremony of a free love marriage with him, only to wake up to what he was doing and leave it all.

After a lapse of eight years, we see her as the governess in a rich man's home, and fate calls upon her to battle again the same Mr. Blon- din to save her youthful protest, the daughter of her employer. There's a lot of complicated events transpiring about the remainder of the picture, tho handsome but worthless Blon- din meets his fate and the Piper is paid, but not by Harriet, who finds true love and happiness after all her trouble.

Anita Stewart is a most bewitching

Harriet Field, who has your sympathy from the very first reel. The set- tings are quite wonderful and the supporting cast is one of the best.

Miss Stewart has ever had, including, as it does, Ward Crane, Irving Cum- mings, Myrtle Stedman and Marg- aret Landis.

If you've ever had a hankering to

"AMBASSADOR" DAHLIA IS DIPLOMATIC:

Why be an actress if you can't start a fad once in a while, is the opinion of Ada Mae Weeks, the pretty actress now pleasing Broadway audiences in "Jim Jam Jams." Miss Weeks starts a new fad weekly, it break loose and become one of the smoked, long haired, village inhab- itants, this picture shows you how they live and love. As for the Greenwich Village idea itself, how- ever, "Harriet and the Piper" gives a good jolt.

It's at the Regent.

The Orpheum

THE acts at the Orpheum are picking up again, after a week of more or less mediocre stuff, and the bill for the first half of this week is quite varied and interest- ing.

First of all, there are the Five Chaplins, musicians and dancers. This is a splendid headliner and one of the best musical acts ever put on here.

The Blou Circus is another good feature of the bill, being a perfor- mance with trained cats and dogs as the principals. The cat feature is a new one, at least it was to me, and they are really remarkable.

Bill Pruitt, the Cowboy Caruso, has a beautiful voice and gives his audience many ballads, ranging from the more popular to the old time ones. A top-notch act.

Renie and Florence, two young girls, have one of the best acts of the group. As they themselves ad- mit, they have other talents besides singing, and use them accordingly. The costumes are beautiful.

The Three Beauties have an act entirely new to vaudeville, and all of them have splendid voices. Some of the best comedy of the bill is put on by one of these "beauties" and they go over big.

Watson and St. Alva have the usual song-talk-dance act and the gen- tleman, whatever his name is, gives a clever little "you tell 'em" song that you'll hear quoted a lot.

The program as a whole is good from start to finish.

Take a tip, tho, and if you're thinking of going to the Orpheum on Sunday, get there early or you won't get there at all.

SHORT SHAVINGS

"I'm sorry, I have not a pleasant left, sir," replied the shopman, "but here are some fine sausages that I can highly recommend. The ones your wife will be delighted with them."

"Sausage be blowed!" yelled the sportsman, "how can I tell my wife I shot sausages?"

"Rivers," said the American, "why your rivers are nothing to ours. Compared with our Hudson and Mississippi your Mersey, Severn, and Thames are sleepy, sickly streams."

"Oh, come," protested the Englishman, "I think your rivers are just as sickly as ours."

"How do you make that out?" "Well, they are all confined to their beds," replied the visitor.

During the holidays the chief guest in the household was a little nephew. The aunt was frankly amazed at the astonishing exhibition of his appetite.

"Heavens!" she exclaimed, one day, "I hope you don't mind my saying so, Louis, but for a little chap, you certainly eat a whole lot!"

Louis, however, was not in the least taken back by this.

"Remember this, auntie," he said, "I don't eat little."

Little Bobby came in the other day crying and rubbing several bumps caused by a series of "battles" administered by a pet sheep.

"What did you do, when the sheep knocked you down?"

"I didn't do nothin'; I was gettin' up all the time."

A Sure Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

Simple, Sure and Easy

this way to a pretty skin

HERE is the safe, sure way to a smooth, healthy, blooming skin. An easy way, so simple that many women will say it can't be true.

It calls for no medication, it requires no special treatment. It is simply helping nature by aiding the natural action of the skin.

For when you know the skin is composed of countless minute glands and tiny pores you will understand that it must be kept clean. Accumulations of dirt, oil and dried perspiration clog and irritate and ugly blotches result.

This cleansing can only be done with soap, pure, soothing soap which does its work without harshness. Such soap is yours in Palmolive, mildest yet most thorough of cleansers.

In classic days Palm and Olive oils served both as cleanser and also a lotion. Ancient records picture their use and record the benefits.

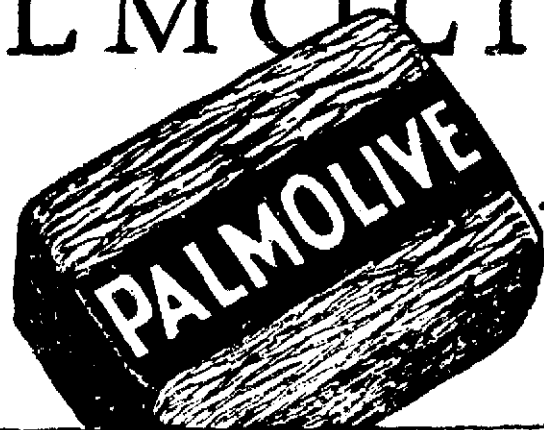

Now, though centuries have passed, these same oriental oils still hold their place as cleansing cosmetics. Their blend in Palmolive has made them famous the world over.

It has produced a soap with a thick, penetrating lather, which cleanses like magic while it soothes, leaving the skin smooth as velvet.

If you value the health of your skin, wash your face daily—wash it thoroughly. Wash it with Palmolive Soap.

THE PALMOLIVE COMPANY, MILWAUKEE, U.S.A.

PALMOLIVE

A luxury—
but popular priced

If made in small quantities, as a luxury facial soap, Palmolive would be very expensive. Palm and Olive oils are imported from over-seas. Their price is naturally high.

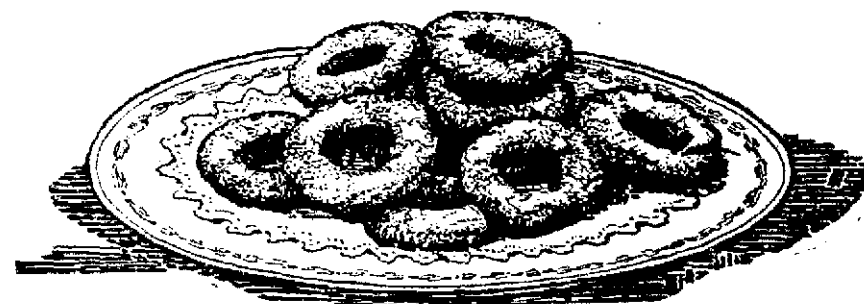

But the demand for Palmolive keeps our factories working day and night. We purchase these rare oils in enormous quantities. This keeps the cost of manufacture low and gives you the finest of facial soaps made at the price of an ordinary cleanser.
